

weekendeats

Corned beef sandwiches

A corned-beef sandwich ranks as one of life's indulgences. The meat shouldn't be too lean; a little fat gives it that lushness. Here are five spots to find stellar sandwiches.

Pastrami King
196 Merrick Rd.
Merrick
516-377-4300
pastramiking.com

COST: $9.25

Despite its name, it's not all about pastrami at this contemporary deli and restaurant. The corned beef is warm and piled high on rye bread, comforting stuff for sure.

Deli on Rye
1008 Willis Ave.
Albertson
516-621-2471

COST: $8.99

The corned-beef sandwich here is nice and hearty. Ask for it warm — and not too lean.

Zan's Kosher Delicatessen Restaurant & Caterer
135 Alexander Ave.
Lake Grove

631-979-8770
zansdeli.com

COST: $9.29

This cheerful spot cures its own meats and does so expertly. The corned-beef sandwich is especially winning.

Ben's Kosher Delicatessen & Restaurant
59 Old Country Rd.
Carle Place (and other locations)
516-742-3354
bensdeli.net

COST: $9.49 ($8.99 to go)

At this dependable deli chain, you can count on an excellent classic like corned beef on rye.

Lido Kosher Deli
641 E. Park Ave.
Long Beach
516-431-4411

COST: $9.99

When a restaurant has been cheerfully serving up corned-beef sandwiches for three generations, you can bet they've perfected the genre.

— JOAN REMINICK